CORONAVIRUS - HOW WE CAN SUPPORT EACH OTHER

How can parishioners in Reed keep in touch, look out for each other and get assistance, if needed, over the coming months? Reed is renowned for its strong community spirit and it is very important that we know that the village, as well as friends and family, are there to help.

What help and support may look like:

- Making sure you have the food and medicine you require
- Getting you to hospital and doctors' appointments
- Collecting your books from the library
- Collecting a parcel for you
- Having a friendly person to chat with

A new village support group has set up WhatsApp and Facebook groups which will enable you to keep in touch, ask for assistance or offer help. If you are regular users you know how it works!!

In these restricting times remember that Reed's roads and countryside are ideal for social distancing recreation and exercise. It's important to keep fit and take in the fresh air.
